

About the Author

---

STEVEN WILSON has two decades of experience in project and program management. He has consulted to senior leaders and leadership teams in organizations ranging from Fortune 500 companies and start-ups to churches and non-profits. Steve is also President and co-founder of Journey Training Institute, LLC. specializing in project management and leadership training, coaching and consulting for organizations and PMI® Chapters. Steve is the Principal Consultant and Lead Instructor on leadership, project management and team dynamics.

After receiving his PMP® Certification in 2003, Steve has successfully delivered CAPM®/PMP® Certification Exam Prep training to over 1,000 PMs in North and South America and Europe.

In addition to training and consulting, Steve is a sought-after speaker on topics relating to leadership and the tactical and strategic areas of project management.

Steve holds a Bachelor and Master of Science in Education and worked as a professional educator for fourteen years.

Steve lives with his wife, Laura in Fairport, New York. Steve has two grown sons, Peter and Timothy who now live in Los Angeles and Buffalo respectively. You can reach Steve at the Journey Training Institute, LLC. Website at www.JourneyConsulting.org or Email at SWilson@JourneyConsulting.org.